RALPH LAUREN

BRAND DNA

Ralph Lauren reflects a distinctive American perspective, as an innovative aspirational lifestyle brand. Holding a remarkable influence on the way people dress and the way that fashion is introduced and celebrated throughout the world. Rooted in history, but inspired by family, experiences, heritage, and authenticity.

"To inspire the dream of a better life through authenticity and timeless style." - Ralph Lauren

RALPH LAUREN

SWOT ANALYSIS

STRENGTHS

- Strong brand DNA
- Utilization of durable materials
- Wide range of products
- Massive global recognition

WEAKNESSES

- Lack of brand marketing for each sub-brand (Double RL, RLX, Purple Label, etc.)
- Not representing a wider range of races, ethnicities, and genders within their ad campaigns
- Product assortment has changed very little over the years
- Don't own any manufacture centers

OPPORTUNITIES

- Include genderless ideations within their collections
- Partnerships with other companies
- Expand Metaverse/ Bitmoji collections
- Collaborations between influencers and celebrities, catering to a younger audience

THREATS

- A new generation is taking over their target customer
- Other brands selling similar products for lower prices
- Other existing brands diving into the digital world
- Cultural appropriation scandal in the past, turning customers away

"This is my closet, it's not fashion; it's real stuff."
- Ralph Lauren

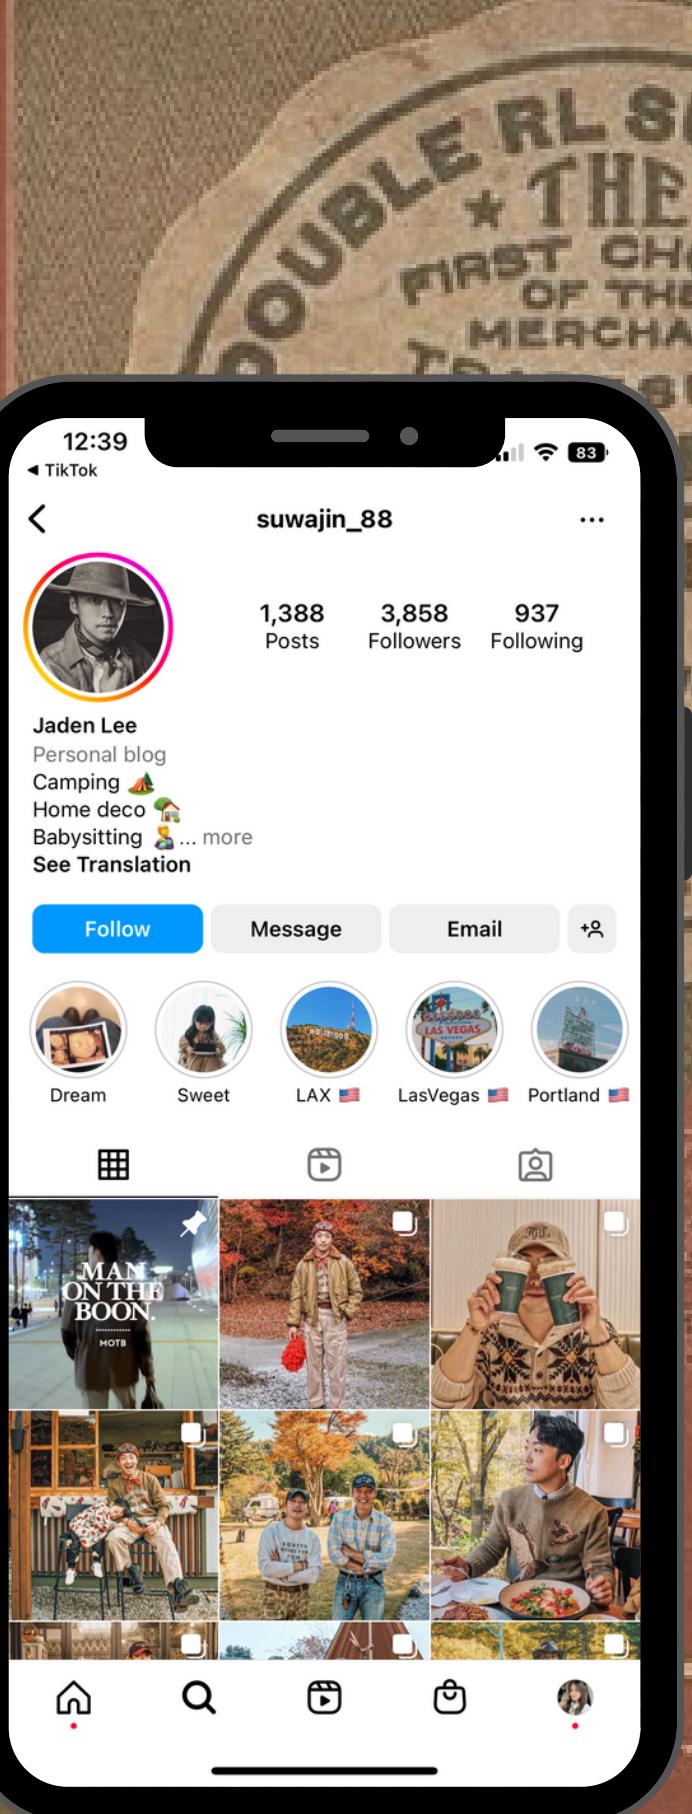

In 1993 Ralph introduced RRL, named and inspired by his ranch in Colorado. Representing his lifestyle in the West. Curated with colorful patterns, workwear styles, vintage apparel, and military gear. Focusing on creating high-quality pieces RRL is centered around raw and distressed work. Consisting of quality denim, leather boots, patchwork, tassel-ridden suede, bohemian blankets, and Americana elements.

CUSTOMER PROFILE

Jaden Lee

-  34 years of age
-  San Francisco, California
-  Carnegie Mellon, B.S in Computer Science
-  Software Engineer
-  $120,000 / year
-  Married
-  Enjoys spending time with his kids, camping, climbing, cooking, and reading
-  Values quality leather, denim, mixing textures and patterns, American heritage

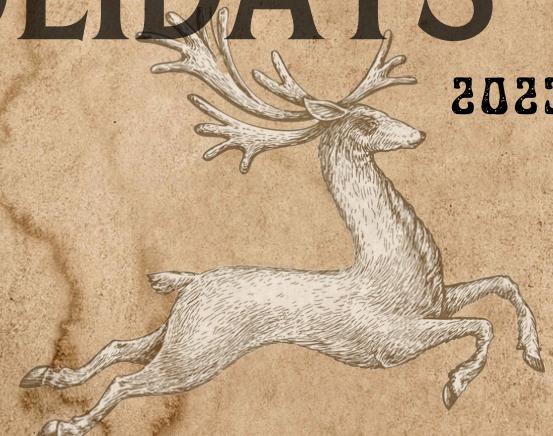

The Double RL Made for The Holidays collection is inspired by the good feelings of coming home for the Holiday season. The nostalgic appreciation for traditions, and the people that bring you comfort. The collection is curated with plush fabrics, that are still practical for spending time outdoors during the season.
